2026 SEASON

PERFORMANCE AT
DEWAN FILHARMONIK PETRONAS

MALAYSIAN PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

The Malaysian Philharmonic Orchestra (MPO) gave its inaugural performance at Dewan Filharmonik PETRONAS (DFP) on 17 August 1998. With the initial search for outstanding musicians involving a worldwide audition tour, the MPO today is made up of many talented Malaysian musicians and musicians from other nations, a beautiful example of harmony among different cultures and nationalities.

With each new season, the MPO continues to present an exciting programme of orchestral music drawn from over three centuries, as well as the crowd-pleasing concert series. Its versatility transcends genres, from classical masterpieces to film music, pop, jazz, traditional, contemporary and commissioned works.

Among renowned Malaysian artists who have mesmerized audiences with the MPO include SM Salim, Sheila Majid, M.Nasir, Siti Nurhaliza, Jamal Abdullah, Ella, Dayang Nurfaizah, Aishah, Jaclyn Victor and Aubrey Suwito.

A host of internationally acclaimed musicians have performed with the MPO including Lorin Maazel, Sir Neville Marriner, Yehudi Menuhin, Joshua Bell, Harry Connick Jr., José Carreras, Andrea Bocelli, Dame Kiri Te Kanawa, Vladimir Ashkenazy, Chris Botti, Branford Marsalis and Judika, many of whom have praised the MPO for its fine musical qualities and vitality.

The MPO regularly performs in major cities of Malaysia such as in Alor Setar, George Town, Ipoh, Johor Bahru, Kuantan, Kota Kinabalu, Kuching and many more. Internationally, it has toured Singapore (1999, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2018), Japan (2001, 2009 and 2017), Korea (2001), Australia (2004), China (2006 and 2019), Taiwan (2007) and Vietnam (2013). The MPO has also released 21 CDs.

The MPO remains steadfast in its mission to be the premier Malaysian orchestra, providing the ultimate music experience through the power of live music that educates, entertains and inspires. Its main benefactor is PETRONAS, and its patron is YABhg. Tun Dr. Siti Hasmah Haji Mohd Ali.

Tengku Irfan

Malaysian-born Tengku Irfan has appeared around the world as a conductor, pianist and composer. He made his Carnegie Hall debut conducting the Juilliard Orchestra in 2024. He has appeared as guest conductor on several occasions with the Malaysian Philharmonic Orchestra. In 2023, he was Assistant Conductor of the National Youth Orchestra of the USA, working alongside eminent conductor Sir Andrew Davis. Among the awards he garnered included the Bayreuth Stipendium Award, and he was the runner-up and audience prize winner of the 2021 Los Angeles Conducting Competition. As assistant and cover conductor, he has worked with conductors such as David Robertson, Jörg Widmann, JoAnn Falletta, Simone Young and Speranza Scappucci, alongside orchestras such as New York Philharmonic, National Symphony Orchestra and Juilliard Orchestra. He was a Conducting Fellow at the Aspen Music Festival and School.

In his earlier years as a pianist, he has performed with orchestras worldwide including the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, Sydney Symphony Orchestra and Estonian National Symphony Orchestra. In 2013, he won the Prokofiev Piano Concerto No. 2 Competition in Aspen and was the resident pianist for the Aspen Contemporary Ensemble from 2014 to 2017. His compositions were premiered by orchestras and ensembles such as the New York Philharmonic, New York Virtuoso Singers, Singapore Symphony Orchestra and the MDR Sinfonieorchester. As a composer, he won three ASCAP Morton Gould Awards.

Prior to his conducting studies, he was a double major in piano and composition at the Juilliard School whose teachers included Yoheved Kaplinsky, Robert Beaser and Ira Taxin. He graduated with a Masters of Music in Orchestral Conducting in 2025 where he studied with David Robertson. As part of the commencement, he was the inaugural recipient of the Robert Craft Igor Stravinsky Grant in Orchestral Conducting. During his years at Juilliard, he was a proud recipient of the Juilliard School Kovner Fellowship Award. Currently, he is the founder and Music Director of Ensemble Fantasque, his own group in New York which promotes music from the 20th and 21st centuries, and underperformed works from earlier time periods.

Cirque de la Symphonie

Cirque de la Symphonie is an exciting production designed to bring the magic of cirque to the music hall. For more than 15 years, it has thrilled and bedazzled veteran concert goers and new patrons as they see accomplished aerial flyers, acrobats, contortionists, dancers, jugglers, balancers and strongmen perform to live symphony music. They include world record holders, gold-medal winners of international competitions, Olympians and some of the most experienced cirque talent ever seen. Their performances are uniquely adapted to stage accommodations shared with the symphony, and each artist's performance is choreographed to the music arranged in collaboration with the maestro. When the artists of Cirque de la Symphonie perform in front of the full orchestra, an incredible fusion of these two great art forms takes place. The aerialists and acrobats turn the concert into a three-dimensional entertainment extravaganza, and the orchestra seems to play with enhanced enthusiasm.

Alexander Streltsov is a former Russian aerial artist who started working with famed cirque choreographer Pavel Brun and producer Valentin Gneushev when he was only 12, performing on Broadway at the Gershwin Theater. The same year, he won the gold medal in the competition among international cirque artists at the prestigious Festival Mondial Du Cirque De L'Avenir in Paris. His combination of natural strength, artistic expression and grace sets his performance apart from other aerialists. Also, known as 'Sasha', he has performed for three Russian presidents and the Bolshoi Ballet, numerous symphonies in the USA and Europe, and elaborate theatre and stage productions worldwide. He has made many television appearances such as the star-studded ABC-TV special Christopher Reeve - A Celebration of Hope and the PBS nationwide broadcast of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra's Fourth of July Celebration. He continues to be a favourite at music halls where he soars out over the audience in a spectacular display of aerial artistry or when he sets his riveting spinning cube act in motion. Since 2005, he has been a creator and producer of Cirque de la Symphonie.

Elena Tsarkova, the 'Lady in White', is a graduate of the famed Moscow Circus School and first-place winner of the prestigious National Russian Circus Festival. From 'Master of Sports' in gymnastics, Elena developed into a unique and graceful performer with the Big Apple Circus, Switzerland's Circus Knie and Germany's Circus Roncalli. Her combination of contortion, balance and graceful dance moves made her a major star with Cirque de la Mur in Florida and Circus Circus in Las Vegas. Elena's experience with major stage and theatre productions offers a professional background that allows for a truly elegant performance with the 'live' symphony.

Vladimir Tsarkov provides a spell-binding performance with combinations of mime and juggling feats. A favourite of audience members of all ages, Vladimir's Red Harlequin act features rings, balls and electric batons, and he's even been known to teach the maestro a trick or two! He is a veteran of Circus-Circus, Cirque Ingenieux and various entertainment productions globally. Vladimir graduated from Russia's prestigious State College of Circus and Theater Arts and won the gold medal at the Cirque de Demain International Festival in France. His performance with the symphony is pure entertainment.

Vitalii Buza began his gymnastic training in the Republic of Moldova and soon competed as an elite gymnast with the Russian national team. At 16, Vitalii joined the Moscow State Circus as a professional acrobat and toured throughout Europe. After a move to the USA, he starred in productions at Sea World, Universal Studios and Walt Disney World. He has been featured in numerous TV advertisements and won a role in the Walt Disney movie Enchanted. Vitalii also performed at the 2006 Latin Grammy Awards, 2007 NFL Pro Bowl, 2010 Academy Awards and 2011 Latin Billboard Awards. He has performed for celebrities and at corporate events for major companies. Vitalii excels in multiple cirque acts such as duo hand-balancing, straps, Cyr wheel, spinning cube, Chinese pole and the Russian bar.

Mary Letourneau is a performance artist and choreographer who performs nationally and internationally as a contortionist, pole artist, aerialist, dancer and stunt performer for commercial media (TV, movies and music videos) and 'live' venues. In this capacity, she toured the USA and other countries working for various entertainment companies and cruise ship lines, performed in three long-running hit resident shows at the prestigious Faena Hotel in Miami Beach, and has produced and performed her solo shows. She enjoys combining her years of education (awarded a university Presidential Scholarship), training and experience in Mongolian contortion, circus arts and dance.

Lauren Stark is a dancer and aerialist originally from California and now resides in Las Vegas. Lauren has performed all over the world, touring with Cirque Mechanics 'Pedal Punk', Imagination Entertainment and the Cherry Bombs, to name a few. She performed as a dancer/aerialist at the Jubilee Theatre with 'Extravaganza' at the Bally's hotel and still remains their aerial coordinator. Lauren also works as a coach and choreographer; she recently finished choreographing the aerial acts for Lindsey Stirling's upcoming international holiday tour.

Windu Sayles is an acrobat, dancer and yogi living in Las Vegas. He began performing as an aerialist in 2006 and joined Diavolo in 2008 as acro-dancer. He was raised by a single, military father who trained him to conquer obstacle courses and any fear of heights. It was this upbringing that led Windu to take an interest in unique physical challenges which eventually led him to train in various circus arts. Before finding a career as an artist, Windu graduated college with an Associate's degree at 18, and later joined the Army himself as a crypto-linguist analyst where he received a Top Secret clearance. Then, he went back to college and took ballet shortly after discovering breakdance. He quickly changed majors, doubled up on units and graduated with honors from Cal State Northridge with a BA in Dance, Theater and Marketing. Windu made aerial pole his specialty in 2018 and it is still his favourite solo apparatus.

PROGRAMME NOTES

Visually spectacular and musically outstanding, the MPO's signature concert Cirque de la Symphonie returns to the DFP stage for the fifth time, a testament to the hall's continuous expansion in performance variety and the MPO's versatility, collaborating with spellbinding acrobatic acts with various sets of music.

Cirque de la Symphonie serves as an ideal entry point for those new to classical music, featuring familiar tunes, high-quality musicianship and the uniqueness that marries music with on-stage drama. The variety in compositions and breathtaking performance make the show hugely entertaining.

Such a move – going beyond the conventional orchestral music performance – underlines MPO's initiative is expanding its audience base and demographic, enticing new crowds to join and watch the MPO in a whole new dimension.

As one of the first performances in the MPO's Season 2026 calendar, the orchestra is also lending its support to the success of Visit Malaysia 2026, making music an attractive itinerary for tourists and visitors to the country.

This family-friendly version of Cirque de la Symphonie is part of the MPO's Family Fun Day segment to inculcate an interest in music among the young. For this special performance, Tengku Irfan, a beloved national figure and successful classical musician, takes the helm. It demonstrates his capacity to navigate diverse genres, transcending orchestral boundaries to create a captivating, multi-sensory experience.

Alongside MPO's orchestral performance, expect spectacular and thrilling acts like aerial silks, juggling and contortion, in a graceful and breathtaking production that will make you gasp and applaud.

One of the most well-known and beloved orchestral works by JOHANN STRAUSS II (1825-1899), Die Fledermaus Overture is visually lively and sparkling, capturing the soul of the lighthearted tale, that is about a New Year's Eve masquerade ball, mistaken identities and a practical joke. From the swirling strings to the fast-paced movement and deft character changes, the composition sets the audience up for a fantastic show.

Danse des Bouffons, by Russian composer NIKOLAI RIMSKY-KORSAKOV (1844-1908) is part of The Snow Maiden, a folktale about love, jealousy and the desperation for passion. A jester-themed, acrobatic and flamboyant court entertainment, with music as a key component, this work is a colourful, entertaining piece.

Widely regarded as one of JOHANNES BRAHMS' most elegant and concentrated symphonic statements, Symphony No. 3 in F Major Op. 90 - 3rd Movement reveals the composer's restraint and cyclic thematic method. Both music critics and scholars acknowledge the tune's subdued, almost resigned emotional quality, which sets it apart from conventionally expressive and dramatic Romantic music.

In Damnation of Faust: Hungarian March, HECTOR BERLIOZ (1803-1869) has contrasted the despair of his disillusioned character Faust with peasant revelry, making this piece one of his musical jewels. Praised for being exhilarating and electrifying with boundless energy, it captures the music's revolutionary spirit and raw power through fantastic brass sounds.

Suite No. 2 - Danse Boheme from Carmen is a tale of passion between soldier Don José and a seductive gypsy woman whose fiery persona and unbridled energy saw him leaving both the military and his childhood love for her. French composer GEORGES BIZET's (1838-1875) dance composition appears gleeful and light, while tackling a story of lawlessness and immorality.

Dance of The Furies from Orphée et Eurydice by CHRISTOPH WILLIBALD RITTER VON GLUCK (1714-1787), was first performed in 1762. With a theme of simplified nobility in both music and drama, the opera was a departure from the complexities that often characterised this art form during that period.

JOSEF STRAUSS' (1827-1870) Ohne Sorgen Polka Op. 271 or No Worries! lives up to its name for rendering positive energy. Its orchestral performance may even feature players' laughter and shouts, like its 1869 premiere in Russia where it embodied a carefree spirit despite hard times. Its intricate orchestration, especially with horns and timpani, makes the composition an exhilarating performance.

Italian opera composer AMILCARE PONCHIELLI's (1834-1886) Dance of the Hours from La Gioconda is so popular that it has evolved from opera to become a singular piece played in a concert. A pop culture phenomenon, the music is joyous and unpretentious, showcasing a strong command of instrumental colour and structure. Crowd-pleasing and fun, it adds much enjoyment to a concert.

Designed to evoke the sounds of a storm, Thunder and Lightning by JOHANN STRAUSS II (1825-1899) is aptly noisy and loud. Capturing the authentic Viennese style, the composition is crisp, lively and coordinated. It brings out the playful character and the dramatic effects of percussion instruments.

JOHANN STRAUSS II's (1825-1899) Voices of Spring / Waltz Op. 410 is an enduringly popular waltz. He wrote this in his 60s, yet the work is full of youthful vibrancy. With joyful, lively and effervescent melodies, the music brilliantly captures the essence of the season. Considered a masterpiece of the Viennese waltz tradition, it is also a staple in the classical repertoire.

GEORGES BIZET's (1838-1875) Carmen Suite No. 1 - Les Toreadors captures the sound and excitement of a bullfight procession. With a strong, persistent rhythmic drive and brilliant orchestration, the composition brings out the aural spectacle of the crowd and the matadors' parade, with brass and percussion depicting the festive atmosphere.
