Chamber

Relax and enjoy the virtuosity of the Malaysian Philharmonic Orchestra's chamber ensemble in a soothing evening of chamber music concert.

Let light classical music serenade your evening with this playlist of easy listening compositions. Tchaikovsky's enduringly popular Romeo & Juliet Overture captures the clash between love and societal expectations while Hisaishi's Spirited Away Medley contrasts it with soft, healing notes. Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 and Stravinsky's Excerpts from the Firebird further enhance the lineup. Conducted and narrated by Gerard Salonga, this is one concert that will perfectly introduce classical music to anyone.

Dvořák The Seventh Symphony Malaysian Philharmonic Orchestra

Known for his mastery in conducting the symphony orchestra and opera, Bulgarian conductor Rossen Gergov leads the MPO to present a symphonic exploration of Romantic music. The concert opens with Glinka's Ruslan and Ludmilla Overture, followed by acclaimed accordionist player Alexander Hrustevich playing Zubitsky's Homage to Astor Piazolla, for accordion and orchestra. Finally, Dvořák's austere and dramatic Symphony No. 7 outlines the composer's Bohemian spirit, a fitting pinnacle for the evening.

"HIS CELLO SOUND HAS THE FUZZ AND RICHNESS OF CARAMEL, AND HE PLAYS WITH AN EASY WARMTH, DRAWING THE ORCHESTRA AFTER HIM LIKE A HALO AROUND A CANDLE FLAME"

-THE WASHINGTON POST-

Sublime, remarkable and lyrical, child prodigy turned accomplished cellist Kian Soltani makes his debut at DFP with Schumann's Cello Concerto, a composition with a variety of musical nuances with striking clarity of musical images. Bruckner's Symphony No. 6, which the composer called his boldest symphony, presents beautiful themes in a balance of loudness and subtlety. Conducted by Junichi Hirokami, the vivacity of music, interlaced with vibrance and humour, makes for an all-round classical music experience.
